

AIR CARGO INDIA 2010, the 3rd in the series of AIR CARGO INDIA event, is scheduled to take place in Mumbai, the busiest metropolis, commercial capital and the Air Cargo hub of India from February 2 to 4, 2010.

The Event is organized by The STAT Trade Times, popularly known as STAT TIMES (www.stattimes.com), an Integrated International Transport Media specializing in Air Cargo since 1986.

This Conference aims at fulfilling the increasing need felt in the Air Cargo industry both in India and abroad for a common platform to come together and deliberate on the prospects in the booming Air Cargo Industry in this country.

It is an opportunity for the delegates to interact with the key players of the industry from all over the world about the immense business possibilities in the emerging Indian Air Cargo market.

The Conference will also provide an opportunity to the delegates to listen to the views of the decision makers from all sectors of the Air Cargo Industry on a variety of relevant topics in sessions based on the main theme of the conference.

A Concurrent Exhibition is being set up for the benefit of the players in the Air Cargo Industry to show case their products and capabilities in the fastest growing region of the Air Cargo market.

For companies with offices in India or the South East Asia, it would be a great opportunity to send representatives to this event. There are 100's of delegates and exhibitors from all over the globe meeting together to discuss the industry. Don't miss out.
