

AVSEC World 2006

Reclaiming the Future: Making it Happen on Our Terms

With passenger and cargo traffic forecast to double by 2020, the challenges that will face the aviation industry then will be quite different and more complex than today. AVSEC World 2006 will propose a forward-looking agenda which leverages new technologies and maximizes the productivity of human resources to handle air transport growth.

IATA, ACI and ECAC, as partners in AVSEC World 2006, emphasize the importance of airline / airport / government co-operation and co-ordination, which must be maintained in order to ensure the security of air transport worldwide.
