

Subject: Customs, Trade and Transport Update - February 2005

Dear All

I now provide the following commentaries and submissions for your consideration.

1. "While Customs Gives, the ATO May Take Away". Please visit http://www.hunthunt.com.au/hunthunt/asp/news_detail.asp?NewsID=242
2. "Availability of Refunds under the US and Thai Free Trade Agreements".
http://www.hunthunt.com.au/hunthunt/asp/news_detail.asp?NewsID=243
3. "Clock turned back as Customs turns the screws". This article originally appeared in the Australian Financial Review on 14 February 2005. Please visit:
<http://www.hunthunt.com.au/hunthunt/Publications/Article%20Clock%20turned.pdf>
4. "Playing by the Rules". An article regarding Rules of Origin which originally appeared in the February 2005 edition of "My Business" magazine. Please visit:
<http://www.hunthunt.com.au/hunthunt/Publications/Article%20Playing%20by%20the%20Rules.pdf>
5. "Australian experience with Free Trade Agreement Dispute Resolution". This is an article by myself and my colleague Lynne Kinnear which first appeared in the Winter 2005 edition of International Law News which is the publication of the Section of International Law of the American Bar Association. This is reproduced with the kind consent of the American Bar Association. Please visit:
<http://www.hunthunt.com.au/hunthunt/Publications/International%20Law%20News%20Winter%202005.pdf>
6. "Canada's new enforcement system for Customs and Trade: The Administrative Monetary Penalty System". This is an interesting article written by Daniel L Kiselbach of Miller Thompson from Vancouver regarding the Customs Administrative Monetary Penalty System in Canada. This article first appeared in the December 2004 issue of the International Business Law, Volume 32 No. 6 and was reproduced by kind consent of the International Bar Association, London, UK and from Daniel L Kiselbach. Please visit
<http://www.hunthunt.com.au/hunthunt/Publications/Canada%20article%20-IBL.pdf>

7. LIV Submission on the proposed Free Trade Agreement between Australia, New Zealand, and the ASEAN group of countries. A copy of the submission can be found at the following link http://www.liv.asn.au/members/sections/submissions/20050216_16/ASEAN%20FTA%20submission.pdf

8. Chinese Legislative Developments ? Further action on WTO implementation. This is a summary from my colleague Katherine Polkinghorne regarding recent legislative developments in China to enable China to comply with its obligations to the WTO. Please visit
<http://www.hunthunt.com.au/hunthunt/Publications/China%20and%20the%20WTO.pdf>

As always, please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any queries.

Kind Regards

Andrew Hudson